WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

RACCOLTA #488 – Prayer

O glorious St. Jude Thaddeus, by those sublime prerogatives, wherewith thou wast ennobled in thy lifetime, namely, thy kinship with our Lord Jesus Christ according to the flesh, and thy vocation to be an Apostle; by that glory which now is thine in heaven as the reward of thine apostolic labors and thy martyrdom: obtain for us from the Giver of every good and perfect gift all the graces whereof we stand in need in order to treasure up in our hearts the divinely inspired doctrines which thou hast transmitted to us in thy Epistle; that is to say, to build our edifice of perfection upon our most holy faith, praying by the grace of the Holy Spirit; to keep ourselves in the love of God looking for the mercy of Jesus Christ unto eternal life; to strive by all means to help them that go astray; exalting thus the glory and majesty, the dominion and power of Him who is able to keep us without sin and to present us spotless with exceeding joy at the coming of our divine Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen. An indulgence of 300 days. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this prayer is said with devotion every day for a month.

SAINTS SIMON AND JUDE, APOSTLES- OCT. 28
(St. Jude Patron Saint of Desperate Cases)

St. Simon is surnamed the Canaanean and also the Zealot, to distinguish him from St. Peter and from St. Simeon, the brother of St. James the Less. The Syro-Chadaic expression Canaanean means the same as the Greek Zelotes, a title that is said to have been given to him on account of his great zeal; but according to other, from his belonging to a sect (among the Jews) called Zealots. It is supposed that he suffered martyrdom in Persia.

St. Jude, known as Thaddæus, was a brother of St. James the Less, and a relative of our Savior. Ancient writers tell us that he preached the Gospel in Judea, Samaria, Idumæa, Syria, Mesopotamia and Lybia. According to Eusebius, he returned to Jerusalem in the year 62, and assisted at the election of his brother, St. Simeon, as Bishop of Jerusalem. He is the author of an epistle to the Churches of the East, particularly the Jewish converts, directed against the heresies of the Simonians, Nicolaites and Gnostics. This Apostle is said to have suffered martyrdom in Armenia, which was then subject to Persia. The final conversion of the Armenian nation to Christianity did not take place until the 3rd century of our era.

PRAYER: O God, who through Thy Blessed Apostles, Simon and Jude, have brought us to knowledge of Thy name, grant that we may celebrate their everlasting glory and that we may advance in good works by celebrating their glory. Amen. Lives of the Saints, pages 421-423.

FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING: Today there will be Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament with the Act of Consecration to Christ the King (page 9 in Hymn Book), following the 9:00 am Mass.

FALL BACK: Next Sunday we revert to Standard Time. Be sure to turn clocks back one hour Saturday night.

MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS begins next Sunday. As usual, we will place the names of your beloved departed on the altar and remember them in our daily prayers for the Poor Souls and in our Masses this month. Be sure to turn in by next Sunday the names of any departed you wish to have remembered.

ALL SAINTS' PARTY for the children of the parish will be held this Friday afternoon. Please consult the flyer for details & remember to contact our Parish secretary if you plan to participate.

CONGRATULATIONS to Joseph & Tiara Strain on the baptism of their newborn daughter Viviana Philomena Marie, who was baptized last Wednesday.

OCTOBER ROSARY: This is the last week where the Rosary is recited each day before the Blessed Sacrament exposed at 5:00 pm in the seminary chapel. All are welcome to attend. We also encourage you to pray the prayer to Saint Joseph, prescribed by Pope Leo XIII, after your daily Rosary during October.

SACRED SCRIPTURE CLASS: There will be a class this Thursday, October 29, at 7:00 pm. The class will also be livestreamed.

NEW CONVENT PEWS: If you would like to help sponsor the new pews in the convent chapel, the donation is $1,000 to have a plaque with your intention placed on a pew, as we have done in the church.
