

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Margaret of Cortona, Penitent – Feb. 22

“The Magdalen of the Seraphic Order,” as St. Margaret is called, was born at Laviano, Italy. She lost her mother when a child, and was treated harshly by her stepmother. Her beauty as a young girl proved fatal...she lived with a nobleman for nine years, always cherishing the hope that he would marry her. She bore him a son who became a Franciscan friar...when the nobleman was murdered Margaret resolved to embrace a life of severest penance to expiate her sins. When her father closed his door against her, she sought refuge with the Franciscans in nearby Cortona. To repair the scandal she had given, she went to the church of Laviano one Sunday and with a rope around her neck publicly begged forgiveness of the people. Her steadfastness was tested for three years, and then she was admitted into the Third Order of Penance of St. Francis. Her life now became most austere and in the course of time she rose to great heights of contemplation. She gave much of her time to nursing the poor sick, for whom she founded a hospital and established a community of nursing Sisters. By her words and example, she converted many hardened sinners who came from all parts of Italy and even from France and Spain. After 29 years of penance, of trials and temptations, she was assured by our Lord, who called her “My daughter,” that all her sins were forgiven. She died, as her biographer states, “with jubilant heart and an angel-like countenance,” and to this day her body has remained incorrupt. A Saint a Day, pgs 40-41

Prayer for the Week

St. Margaret of Cortona , Raccolta #564

O most glorious Saint Margaret, true pearl whom Almighty God with so great love plucked from the hand of the infernal enemy who possessed thee, in order that, by means of thy wonderful conversion, holy life and most precious death, He might move all poor sinners to forsake sin, by doing good and avoiding evil as well as all sinful occasions: obtain for us, thy faithful clients, from thy exalted place in heaven, a place to which thy tears and thy penance elevated thee, the grace of a sincere repentance, a lively sorrow for our sins and, after a holy life spent, like thine, in the love of Jesus Crucified, the grace of a happy death and a crown of glory in paradise. Amen. Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be. An indulgence of 300 days.
