

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT MARIA GORETTI, Virgin & Martyr
July 9 – Patroness of Youth

St. Maria Goretti is one of the youngest saints of the Roman Catholic Church. She died a martyr to preserve, and seal with her blood, her love of Jesus and her loyalty to God’s commandments.

On June 25th of the Holy Year 1950, St. Maria Goretti was given the supreme honors of the Catholic Church by being raised to sainthood. Pope Pius XII, was the first to invoke this little saint—“St. Maria Goretti, pray for us!” Thus terminated the process of Canonization of ‘the St. Agnes of the 20th century.’”

St. Maria Goretti was beatified by Pope Pius XII on April 27, 1947. Among the vast crowd that thronged St. Peter’s Basilica on that memorable April day were Maria’s own mother, brother and two sisters. In his address to the pilgrims, who had come for the Beatification ceremony, largely Catholic Action groups of girls, the Holy Father congratulated the mother for the “incomparable happiness of having seen her daughter elevated to the honors of the altar.” Maria, he added, is the mature fruit of a Christian home with its old, simple method of education, ‘of a home where one prays, where the children are brought up in the fear of God, in obedience to their parents, in the love of truth and self-respect; accustomed to be satisfied with little and to give a helping hand.’ Comparing Maria with St. Agnes, the Pope remarked that “the delicate grace of these adolescent girls might make us overlook their courage; yet strength is the virtue of virgins and martyrs.

“St. Agnes in the vortex of pagan society; St. Aloysius Gonzaga at the elegantly licentious courts of the Renaissance; St. Maria Goretti living close to, pursued by, the passion of shameless persons; they were neither ignorant nor impassible, but were strong, strong with that supernatural strength of which every Christian receives the seed in Baptism, but which must be cultivated by a careful education.

“Our Beata was a strong soul. She knew and understood; and that is precisely why she preferred to die. She was not merely an innocent ‘ingenue,’ instinctively frightened by the shadow of sin. She was not sustained solely by a natural feeling of modesty. No, though still young, she already gave signs of the intensity and depth of her love for the Divine Redeemer...” The Holy Father then denounced present day public immorality and called on Catholics to react boldly. Charity is patient, is kind. Charity envieth not, dealeth not perversely, is not puffed up, is not ambitious, seeketh not her own, is not provoked to anger, thinketh no evil, rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth with truth, beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things. Charity never falleth away. (1 Cor. XIII: 4-8)
