

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT PIUS X, Pope & Confessor September 3

Joseph (Giuseppe) Sarto, the son of a cobbler and village postmaster, was so poor he used to walk the three miles to school carrying his shoes to save them from wear...he was ordained at the age of 23. The death of Leo XII brought him to Rome for the conclave...he was elected, despite his tearful plea of unworthiness. Once crowned head of the Church, he set to work with customary calm and firmness to "restore all things in Christ." His decrees and enactments were some of the most decisive in the history of the Church: he set up new norms for Church music, revised the catechism, recodified Canon Law, founded the papal Biblical Institute, established the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine, and promoted early First Communion for children. This opened the way for frequent and daily Communion for all and merited for Pius the title of "Pope of the Eucharist." He battled courageously for the Church against the anticlerical governments of France, Portugal, and Italy, and by his famous encyclical Pascendi of 1907, dealt the deathblow to Modernism which threatened the entire edifice of Catholic doctrine. Pius X remained in spirit the simple "country priest," humble and unaffected and deeply devout, hence he was called Papa santo – "the Pope Saint." He worked and prayed to avert World War I, and its outbreak put a crushing burden on his heart from which arose the cry during his last illness: "I wish to suffer, to die for the soldiers on the battlefield." His last will contained the words: "I was born poor, I have lived poor, and I wish to die poor." On his tomb is the inscription: "Poor and yet rich, meek and humble of heart, undaunted champion of the Catholic faith, zealous to restore all things in Christ." A Saint a Day, Pages 223-224
