

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT JOHN CLIMACUS, Abbot – March 30

St. John, called Climacus from his book “The Ladder (Climax) of Paradise,” was born about the year 525. At the age of sixteen he renounced all worldly goods to dedicate himself to God in the religious state. For forty years he lived as a solitary in his hermitage at the foot of Mount Sinai. In the year 600 he was chosen Abbot of Mount Sinai and superior-general of all the monks and hermits in that country. So wide was his reputation that St. Gregory the Great, who was then Pope, wrote to him recommending himself to his prayers and sent him gifts for his hospital near Mount Sinai.

St. John never sought for glory or for fame; on the contrary, he endeavored to hide the natural and supernatural gifts with which he was endowed, in order the better to practice humility.

His famous work, the “Climax” was written only in deference to the will of another. It is a spiritual treatise consisting of concise sentences and affording several examples that illustrate the monastic life of that period. Four years he governed the monastery of Mount Sinai, sighing constantly under the weight of his dignity, which he resigned shortly before his death. Heavenly contemplation and the continual exercise of divine love and praise were his delight and comfort in his earthly pilgrimage. On March 30, 605, the blessed life of this great saint came to an end in the hermitage that had witnessed his uninterrupted communing with God. From the time he entered the monastic state, St. John had earnestly applied himself to root out of his heart self-complacency in his actions; he practiced silence as a means of acquiring humility, and he made it a rule never to contradict, never to dispute with anyone. He appeared to have no will of his own, so great was his submission.

PRAYER: May the intercession of Blessed Abbot John commend us to Thee, we beseech Thee, O Lord, so that what we do not deserve by any merits of our own, we may obtain by his patronage. Amen. Lives of the Saints, pages 130-131

Raccolta #290

Come, Holy Ghost, Sanctifier of all powerful, God of love, Thou who didst fill the Virgin Mary with grace, Thou who didst wonderfully transform the hearts of the Apostles, Thou who didst endow all Thy martyrs with a miraculous heroism, come and sanctify us. Illumine our minds, strengthen our wills, purify our consciences, rectify our judgments, set our hearts on fire, and preserve us from the misfortune of resisting Thine inspirations. Amen.
An indulgence of 500 days.
