

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

THE TRANSFIGURATION OF OUR LORD
August 6

While Jesus was in Galilee, about one year before His Passion, He manifested His glory to three of His most beloved disciples – the same who were afterward witnesses of His Agony in the Garden: Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, James, and John. He led them to the summit of Mount Thabor, as it is generally believed – this mountain, situated on a plain in Galilee, best answering the description of the evangelists. The face of the Divine Savior became resplendent as the Sun and His garments white as snow. Moses and Elias appeared at His side and conversed with Him on the death He was to suffer at Jerusalem. Peter, in admiration, exclaimed: “Lord, it is good for us to be here!” He then proposed to erect three tents: one for the Savior, the other for Moses and the third for Elias. While he yet spoke, a luminous cloud enveloped them and a voice was heard proceeding for it: “This is My beloved Son in whom I am well pleased; hear Him.” The three Apostles fell prostrate; but Jesus touched them and commanded them to arise. When they arose, the vision had vanished, and Our Lord stood beside them in His ordinary guise. It was meet that those who so soon should behold Jesus in the depths of the humiliation to which His sacred humanity was to be subject in Gethsemani, should catch a glimpse of that gloried humanity and of His Divinity, that they might be strengthened against temptation.

PRAYER: O God, who in the glorious Transfiguration, of Thy Only-begotten Son confirmed the sacraments of the faith by the testimony of the fathers, and in the voice which came down from the shining cloud, wondrously foreshowed the perfect adoption of sons: deign in Thy mercy, to make us coheirs with this King of glory, and grant that we may be made partakers of that same glory. Amen.
