✠ Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements ✠

THANKSGIVING DAY: We encourage our parishioners to attend Mass, if at all possible, on Thanksgiving Day. Devout attendance at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass is the very best way to thank God for all the many blessings we have received from His infinite goodness. After Mass we will recite the Te Deum.

CONFESSIONS: Due to the Thanksgiving vacation, confessions will not be heard at 4:00 pm this coming Saturday, but there will be confessions, as usual, before Mass on Saturday and Sunday next weekend.

SEMINARY FUNDRAISING BREAKFAST is being held after each Mass today. Thank you for supporting our seminary!

THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS: This Tuesday, November 22, is the final day for donating non-perishable food items or money for Thanksgiving baskets for needy families. Donations must be received no later than Noon on Tuesday.

THE SEASON OF ADVENT begins next Sunday. We encourage all parishioners to plan on making sacrifices during this holy season, as a preparation for Christmas. We also encourage the use of the Advent wreath and other devout practices appropriate to this season.

ABSTINENCE from meat is not required this Friday, the day after Thanksgiving.
