

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

“THE CORD OF SAINT JOSEPH”

The Cord of St. Joseph originated in Antwerp, Belgium, in 1657 with the miraculous cure of a devout Augustinian nun named Sister Elizabeth. After a severe and painful illness of three years’ duration, the physicians had given up hope of curing her and expected her soon to die. But Sister Elizabeth, having always been devoted to St. Joseph, made a cord, had it blessed in the Saint’s honor and put it around her waist. A few days later, when praying before his statue, she was suddenly freed from pain. Her recovery was considered miraculous. Eventually the devotion of the Cord spread, and numerous special graces were obtained through its devout use. The Cord was used not merely as a remedy against bodily ailments, but also as a spiritual aid to preserve the virtue of purity. The devotion was approved by the Sacred Congregation of Rites on September 19, 1859, and it was also blessed and approved by Pope Pius IX.

Graces obtained by the wearing of this Cord are 1) St. Joseph’s special protection; 2) purity of soul; 3) the grace of chastity; 4) final perseverance; 5) particular assistance at the hour of death.

The Cord should be of thread or cotton, with seven knots at one end, and should be worn around the waist. It should be blessed by a priest.

One who wears the Cord may recite the Glory be to the Father seven times daily in honor of St. Joseph, together with the Prayer for Purity. Favorite Prayers to St. Joseph, Page 69

PRAYER TO SAINT
JOSEPH FOR PURITY

Guardian of virgins and holy father Joseph, to whose watchful care Jesus, Innocence itself, and Mary, Virgin of virgins, were entrusted, I pray to you and eagerly ask you, by Jesus and Mary, your charges, that I may be preserved from all uncleanness and may with spotless mind, pure heart and chaste body, ever serve Jesus and Mary most perfectly, all the days of my life. Amen.
