

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

“SINS AGAINST FAITH”

The following remedies are suggested for doubts about matters of faith.

1. To turn the mind away from the subject altogether
2. To make acts of faith frequently.
3. To pray for increase of faith.
4. To act towards God as a simple child acts towards its parents.
5. To shun occasions that are dangerous to faith.
6. To appreciate the gift of faith very highly, more than one values life and health.

SAINT GERTRUDE, Virgin

November 16 – Patroness of the West Indies

St. Gertrude was born at Eisleben in Saxony. At the age of five she was placed in charge of the Benedictine nuns at Rodalsdorf and later became a nun in the same monastery, of which she was elected Abbess in 1251. The following year she was obliged to take charge of the monastery of Helffels, to which she removed with her nuns.

She had enjoyed a good education. She wrote and composed in Latin and was versed in sacred literature. The life of this saint, though not replete with stirring events and striking actions, was one of great mental activity. It was the mystic life of the cloister, a life hidden with Christ in God. She was characterized by great devotion to the Sacred Humanity of Our Lord in His Passion and love for the Blessed Virgin. Her contemplative life did not, however, interfere with the performance of the active duties of her state, and she exhibited great solicitude in attending to the necessities of all her Sisters.

Her charity extended beyond the limits of this mortal existence, embracing the suffering souls in Purgatory, to whom she was very devoted. She has left us a living portraiture of her own soul in her little book of “Divine Insinuations; or Communications and Sentiments of Love.” Her sister, Mechtilde, is also honored among the saints. The latter preceded her to the grave. The holy Abbess, St. Gertrude, died in the year 1302.

PRAYER: O God, Who, in the heart of the holy Virgin Gertrude, provided for Thyself an abode pleasing unto Thee: through her merits and intercession, and in Thy mercy, wash away the stains from our hearts and grant, that we may enjoy companionship with her. Amen.
