

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

ST. BARNABAS, Apostle – June 11

Though not one of the Twelve, St. Barnabas was considered one of the Apostles by the Fathers of the Church. He was a Jew of the tribe of Levi, but born in Cyprus, where his family was settled. The Apostles changed his name of Joseph to that of Barnabas because of his success as a preacher, a name which is interpreted to mean “son of exhortation” or “consolation.” It was St. Barnabas who interceded with the disciples for Saul, the zealous persecutor of the infant Church.

When St. Barnabas went to Antioch to consolidate the infant Church there, he asked St. Paul to share his labors. He then became associated with St. Paul in the conversion of the Gentiles and accompanied him to Cyprus and other cities of Asia. He later visited Cyprus again in the company of John Mark. A tradition relates that he died at Salamis in Cyprus, after being stoned.

Words of Our Lady to the Children on July 13th, 1917

“You have seen Hell,” she explained to them, “where the souls of sinners go. To save them God wishes to establish in the world the devotion to my Immaculate Heart. If people do as I shall ask, many souls will be converted and there will be peace. This war is going to end, but if people do not cease offending God, not much time will elapse and during the Pontificate of Pius XI another and more terrible war will begin. When you shall see a night illumined by an unknown light, know that this is the great sign from God that the chastisement of the world for its many transgressions is at hand through war, famine, persecution of the Church and of the Holy Father.

“To prevent this, I shall come to ask for the consecration of Russia to my Immaculate Heart and the Communion of reparation on the First Saturdays. If my requests are heard, Russia will be converted and there will be peace. If not, she will spread her errors throughout the entire world, provoking wars and persecution of the Church. The good will suffer martyrdom; the Holy Father will suffer much; different nations will be annihilated. But in the end my Immaculate Heart will triumph. The Holy Father will consecrate Russia to me, and it will be converted, and some time of peace will be granted to humanity.
