

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION

The education of all Catholics from their childhood must be such that not only shall they be taught nothing contrary to the Catholic faith and good morals, but religious and moral training shall occupy the principal place in the curriculum. Not only the parents, as mentioned in Canon 1113, but in addition all those who take their place, have the right and the most serious obligation of providing for the Christian education of the children (Canon 1372)

Catholic children shall not attend Non-Catholic or un-denominational schools, nor schools that are mixed (that is to say, open also to non-Catholics). The bishop of the diocese alone has the right...to decide under what circumstances, and with what safeguards against perversion, the attendance of such schools by Catholic children may be tolerated (Canon 1374). The Church has the right to establish schools of every grade—intermediate and higher schools as well as elementary (Canon 1375). A Practical Commentary on the Code of Canon Law, Page 136

Spiritual Thought for the Week

Union with God

When will we experience the sweetness of the Divine will in all that happens, pay no attention to anything but His good pleasure, which sends us adversity as well as prosperity, but with the same love and for our own good? When will we abandon ourselves completely to the embrace of our all-loving Heavenly Father, leaving it to Him to take care of us and our affairs, and reserving for ourselves only the desire to please Him and to serve Him as well as we can?

Saint Jane Frances de Chantal Spiritual Diary, page 252

If you throw yourself wholeheartedly into the practice of holy abandonment, without hardly noticing it you will make much progress, just as do the passengers on board a ship sailing on the high sea under favorable winds, relying completely on the guidance of the captain.
