

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

“The Lady of the Rosary”

It seemed that all Portugal knew it by now. The Blessed Mother had promised a miracle for October, a miracle so great that all would believe in the reality of the apparitions...Murmurs of impatience and disappointment were being heard among the crowd. But suddenly Lucy exclaimed: “Kneel down, Jacinta, for now I see Our Lady.” There it was, a familiar flash that heralded the appearance of the Heavenly visitor. The faces of the children assumed an ecstatic expression, and once more the bystanders realized that they were gazing at the beautiful Lady. The Lady kept her promise to tell them who she was. She announced: “I am the Lady of the Rosary.” Her face grew grave as she imparted her last message to the children. “People must amend their lives, ask pardon for their sins, and not offend Our Lord any more for He is already too greatly offended.”

As she took her leave of the children she opened her hands, and from them rays of light extended in the direction of the sun. “There she goes! There she goes!” shouted Lucy and her words found echo in a great cry of astonishment from the multitude, by now observing the first awe-inspiring manifestations of the Miracle of the Sun...Down it hurtled, closer and closer to earth, staggering “drunkenly” as it zigzagged through the skies while from all parts of the now terrified multitude arose cries of repentance and appeals for mercy.

“Dear God, don’t let me die in my sins,” cried another.

“Holy Virgin, protect us,” implored a third...

While people looked at one another, still trembling from their terrifying experience and not yet sure that some further disaster would not overtake them, a cry of astonishment was heard on every side. Their rain-sodden garments had suddenly dried and everybody felt comfortable and warm. It was a gracious maternal gesture on the part of the Blessed Mother, in the wake of the greatest miracle our generation has ever known. A Woman Clothed With the Sun – from Pgs. 198, 201, 202 & 203

Spiritual Thought for the Week

O God, Light of the minds that see Thee: Life of the souls that love Thee, and Strength of the thoughts that seek Thee: enlarge our minds and raise the vision of our hearts, that with swift wings of thought our spirits may reach Thee, the Eternal Wisdom, who art from everlasting to everlasting: through Jesus Christ Our Lord. Amen.
