

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Spiritual Thought for the Week
Perfection

I hear speak of nothing but perfection, but I see it practiced by just a few. Each pictures perfection in his own way. Some see it in simplicity of dress, some in austerity, some in almsgiving, some in the frequenting of the Sacraments; others see it in prayers, others in passive contemplation, and still others in those freely-given or gratuitous graces—but they all err, taking the effects for the cause and the means for the end. I, for my part, know of no other perfection than that of loving God with one’s whole heart and one’s neighbor as oneself. He who conceives any other type of perfection deceives himself, because the accumulation of all the other virtues without this love is nothing but the amassing of stones. And if we do not immediately and perfectly enjoy this treasure of holy love, it is our own fault, because we are too parsimonious and hesitant with God, and we do not give ourselves entirely to Him as did the Saints.

St. Francis de Sales

From this holy thought, who does not realize that St. Francis de Sales’ perfection could not help but be real and very sublime, when his love of God and neighbor was so holy and so pure? The same can be said of St. Vincent de Paul.

St. Mary Magdalene de Pazzi was truly admirable in these two virtues. She acquired such a great love of God and neighbor that she labored more for the latter’s good than for her own. Spiritual Diary, pg. 11

Prayer to Mary Immaculate for America

O Mary Immaculate! Guard with loving care this country dedicated to thee. Let thy purity keep it pure. Watch over its institutions. As thou art the Refuge of all sinners, this country is the refuge of the exiled and the oppressed. Guide it ever in the ways of peace. Let not its prosperity be its ruin. Alas! Many of its children, who know not what they do, are walking in uncertain paths which are dark, and lead them away from truth. Mother of all, pray for us and plead for them, that we, thy children, may love and adore thy adorable Son with more fervent faith, and that those who are wandering in error’s path may, through thy intercession, return to the one Fold of the True Shepherd—to thy Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
