

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
 - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
 - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
 - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Dominic Savio – March 9

As a small child, Dominic loved the Lord and His Church. He was very devout in practicing his Catholic faith. For example, he said grace before every meal and refused to eat with those who did not. He was always quick to encourage others to pray.

Dominic attended Church regularly with his mother and was often seen kneeling before the Tabernacle in prayer. Dominic was quickly recognized as an exceptional student who studied hard and performed well in school. He became an altar server. He also attended daily Mass and went to confession regularly. He asked to receive his first communion at the age of seven. This was not the practice in the Church of Italy at the time. Normally, children received their first holy communion at the age of twelve. Dominic's priest was so impressed with his intelligence concerning the faith, his love for the Lord and his piety that he made an exception. Dominic said that the day of his First Communion was the happiest day of his life.

On the Day he received his first communion, Dominic wrote four promises in a little book. Those promises were:

1. I will go to Confession often, and as frequently to Holy Communion as my confessor allows.
2. I wish to sanctify the Sundays and festivals in a special manner.
3. My friends shall be Jesus and Mary.
4. Death rather than sin.

Prayer to Saint Dominic Savio

Saint Dominic Savio, angelic youth, who at the school of Don Bosco learned the way of holiness, help us to imitate thy love for Jesus, thy devotion to Mary, thy zeal for souls and thy resolution to prefer death to sin; that we may reach eternal salvation. Amen.

Lenten Quotes from the Divine Office

“As I live, saith the Lord: I do not will the death of a sinner, but rather that he be converted and live.”

“There are come to us days of penance, to redeem our sins and to save our souls.”

“Let us prove ourselves, in much patience, in much fasting, by the armor of justice.”
