

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
 - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
 - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
 - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT RITA OF CASCIA – May 22

According to the “Life” (Acta SS., May, V, 224) written at the time of her beatification by Augustinian, Jacob Carelicci, from two older biographies, Saint Rita was the daughter of parents advanced in years and distinguished for charity which merited them the surname of “Peacemakers of Jesus Christ”. St. Rita’s great desire was to become a nun, but, in obedience to the will of her parents, she, at the age of twelve, married a man extremely cruel and ill-tempered. For eighteen years she was a model wife and mother. When her husband was murdered, she tried in vain to dissuade her twin sons from attempting to take revenge; she appealed to Heaven to prevent such a crime on their part, and they were taken away by death, reconciled to God. She applied for admission to the Augustinian convent at Cascia, but, being a widow, was refused. By continued entreaties, and, as is related, by Divine intervention, she gained admission, received the habit of the order and in due time her profession. As a religious she was an example for all, excelled in mortifications, ad was widely known for the efficacy of her prayers.

Urban VIII, in 1637, permitted her Mass and Office. Because of the many miracles reported to have been wrought at her intercession she received, in Spain, the title of La Santa de los Impossibles. She was solemnly canonized 24 May, 1900. Newadvent.org

Prayer to Saint Rita - Patroness of Impossible Cases

O God, who didst vouchsafe to communicate so great a grace to St. Rita that she imitated Thine example in the love of enemies and bore in her heart and on her countenance the sacred marks of Thy love and passion: grant, we beseech Thee, by her merits and intercession, that we may love our enemies and ever contemplate with deep contrition the sorrows of Thy Passion: Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

Prayer to be Said in Any Necessity

O holy Rita, upon whom God did confer such singular favors during thy stay on this earth: pray for me and obtain the grace, first to know and detest my sins, and to increase in virtue; and particularly that I may be freed from my present affliction (mention request), provided such liberation be not contrary to the Divine Will nor detrimental to my salvation. In this desire and in all other things I commit and subject myself to the Disposition and Will of the Most High God, and to thy maternal judgment, O holy Rita. Amen.
