

\WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

GOD BLESS THE CONFIRMANDI

Spiritual Thought for the Week
Prayer

When one has to treat with others concerning matters of the Spirit, it is best first to treat of them with God in Prayer, emptying oneself of one’s own mind in order to fill one’s self with the Holy Spirit, Who alone enlightens the mind and inflames the will. Superiors, more than anyone else, should do this. They should seek to be in continual communication with God and have recourse to Him not only in doubtful and troublesome cases, but in every situation, in order to learn directly from Him what they must teach others.
