

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

LADY OF GUÁPULO

The “Lady of Guápulo” featured on this year’s Christmas stamp has a long relationship with the devotion to Mary in Spanish history. The Metropolitan Museum of Art, which provided the image, states that it is a copy of the original “Lady of Guadalupe,” revered in the Monastery of Santa María de Guadalupe in today’s Cáceres province of the Extremadura of Spain.

Our Lady of Guadalupe is one of Spain’s three Black Madonnas. Carved of cedar wood, it is just over two feet tall. Since the late 14th century, it has been clothed in gold brocaded robes, showing only the face and hands. In 1928 it was canonically crowned by Pope Pius XI, with King Alfonso XIII attending.

Pope Gregory I gave the statue to Saint Leander, archbishop of Seville, but Seville was taken by the Moors in 712, and the statue was hidden in the hills near the Guadalupe River in Extremadura. In the early 14th century, the Virgin Mary visited a humble herdsman, instructing him to have the clergy dig where she appeared; the statue was re-discovered and venerated in a little shrine. In time the little shrine became the great Guadalupe monastery.

An unknown painter created the Virgin of Guápulo as a copy of the Virgin of Guadalupe in 1584. It is named after the Church of Our Lady of Guápulo – the first Marian sanctuary in Ecuador.
