

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

Saint Michael the Archangel

The name Michael signifies “Who is like to God,” and was the war cry of the good angels in the battle fought in Heaven against Satan and his followers. St. Michael the Archangel, whose feast is observed September 29th, is one of the three principal angels venerated by the Church – Michael, Gabriel, Raphael. Holy Scripture describes him as “one of the chief princes,” and as leader of the forces of Heaven in their triumph over the powers of Hell. He has been especially honored and invoked as patron and protector by the Church from the time of the Apostles. Although he is always called “the Archangel,” the Greek Fathers as well as many theologians place him over all the angels, making him the Prince of the Seraphim.

On this same day, September 29th, the Church honors not only St. Michael the Archangel, but also all the angels who persevered in fidelity to God, and, with St. Michael at their head, cast out Lucifer and his accomplices from Heaven. They contemplate, love, and praise God in Heaven.

Some of them are frequently sent as messengers from on high. We cannot form an image of them, as they are incorporeal, having no body; but we are able to conceive an idea of them in our minds. An angel is constantly united with God in the Beatific Vision. This, however, does not interfere with their natural activity. Accordingly, they look with interested participation on the various events of human history, which is the preparation for the establishment of God’s eternal kingdom.

There is a second feast of St. Michael, that of his Apparition (May 8th) on Monte Gargano, Italy, in the 5th century. In France, St. Michael is venerated as patron of mariners in the famous sanctuary of Mount Saint Michael in Brittany, and there is not a country in which the great Archangel is not invoked and venerated as patron by individuals, parishes, and dioceses.
