

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church and we look forward to seeing you again.

ACT OF ADORATION

RACCOLTA #147

The faithful who, upon entering a church, proceed at once to the Altar of the Blessed Sacrament and make even a brief adoration there, may gain: An indulgence of 300 days.

RACCOLTA #148

The faithful who devoutly visit the Blessed Sacrament and recite five times Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be, and add one Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory be for the intentions of Holy Mother Church, are granted:

An indulgence of 10 years; A plenary indulgence on condition of confession and Communion if they devoutly perform this devotion for seven continuous days.

ST. BENEDICT JOSEPH LABRE

St. Benedict Joseph Labre was born in France in 1748. He received a good education under the care of his pious parents and a priest of Amettes, the place of his birth.

From his childhood he performed various acts of penance for faults, even the most venial. In his twelfth year he began to learn Latin under the care of his uncle, a priest, and for four years he applied himself to this and other studies with pleasure. At sixteen, however, his thoughts turned so much to piety that a dislike of study seemed to gain upon him. Above all, he loved the Bible, and for the rest of his life always carried a copy about with him.

At this period of his life, he showed a desire to join the Trappists. Upon being refused he next tried the Carthusians and remained six weeks among them; but such was not his vocation. Another trial of monastic life, made among the Cistercians, was equally a failure. He now took to the life of a pilgrim, and in this he sanctified himself, living on alms and practicing extreme poverty. The last years of his life were spent in Rome, where he made pilgrimages to different sanctuaries. Gradually his health declined. In 1783 he seemed to be dying and yet he would spend hours in prayer. Finally, he was taken into a house out of charity, and died on April 16th of that same year.

PRAYER: O God, Thou who gladden us by the annual feast of Blessed Benedict Joseph, Thy Confessor, mercifully grant that we may imitate his example, whose heavenly birthday we celebrate. Amen.
