

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
  - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
  - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
  - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT ANNE,
MOTHER OF OUR BLESSED LADY
July 26 – Patroness of Housewives

St. Anne and St. Joachim, both of the tribe of Juda of the royal house of David, are venerated by the Church as the parents of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who was probably their only child. The other Mary mentioned in the Gospels as the sister of the Mother of God was, it is believed, her cousin; such manner of designating relatives being usual in the East. St. Anne has been honored as a saint from early Christian times. Churches were dedicated to her honor, and the Fathers, especially those of the Oriental Churches, loved to dilate on her sanctity and privileges. She is often represented as teaching her little daughter to read the Scriptures.

PRAYER: O God, Thou who deigned to bestow upon Blessed Anne such grace, that she was found worthy to become the mother of her who brought forth Thine Only-begotten Son, mercifully grant that we, who celebrate her feast, may be helped by her intercession with Thee. Amen.
Lives of the Saints, Pages 285-286

SAINT MARY MAGDALEN, Penitent
July 22

Saint Mary, whom Jesus converted, and who witnessed His last moments in company with Mary, His Mother, and St. John, the beloved disciple, was called Magdalen from the town of Magdala in Galilee. At least St. Clement of Alexandria and others identify the penitent woman who washed Jesus’ feet with her tears with Mary Magdalen.

She was by descent a Galilean and followed Jesus with other devout women. Some also suppose that she was the same Mary who was the sister of Martha and Lazarus. After His Resurrection, Jesus appeared first to Mary Magdalen and then to His Apostles. It is an ancient tradition in Provence, France, that Saint Mary Magdalen, or Mary the sister of Lazarus, together with Lazarus, Martha and some other disciples of Our Lord, being expelled by the Jews, put to sea and landed at Marseilles; and that St. Lazarus became the first Bishop of that See.

Lives of the Saints, pages 278-280

“Three saints,’ said our Lord to St. Bridget of Sweden, “have been more pleasing to me than all others: Mary my mother, John the Baptist, and Mary Magdalen.” The fathers tell us that Magdalen is the type of the Gentile Church, called from the depth of sin to perfect holiness; and, indeed, better than any other, she personifies both the wanderings and the love of the human race, espoused by the Word of God. Like the most illustrious characters of the law of grace, she has her antitype in past ages. Let us follow the history of this great penitent as traced by unanimous tradition: Magdalen’s glory will not be thereby diminished.
