

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

ST. LAWRENCE, MARTYR
Raccolta #554 – Prayer

O glorious St. Lawrence, Martyr and Deacon, who, being subjected to the most bitter torments, didst not lose thy faith nor thy constancy in confessing Jesus Christ, obtain in like manner for us such an active and solid faith, that we shall never be ashamed to be true followers of Jesus Christ, and fervent Christians in word and in deed.

Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory be.

V. Pray for us, O holy Lawrence,
R. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

Grant, we beseech Thee, Almighty God, the grace to quench the flames of our vices, Thou who didst enable blessed Lawrence to overcome his fiery torments. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

An indulgence of 300 days, once a day. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if these prayers are said devoutly every day for a month.

SAINT DOMINIC, Confessor – August 4

St. Dominic, a native of Calaroga in Old Castile, Spain, was of the illustrious house of the Guzmans. At the age of fourteen he was sent to the schools of Palencia, which soon after were transferred to Salamanca. Having finished his education, he received the habit of the Regular Canons of St. Augustine in the diocese of Osma. Devoting himself with ardor to the work of his own sanctification, he also labored zealously for the salvation of others by preaching the Word of God.

He accompanied his Bishop on a mission imposed by Alphonsus IX, King of Castile. In France they became acquainted with the ravages of the Albigensian heresy. Both the Bishop and his companion proceeded to Rome, where they obtained permission from Innocent III to preach the Gospel among the heretics. They now began to labor with great zeal. To provide for the education of children, St. Dominic established a convent of nuns at Prouille, which became the nucleus of the Order of Dominican nuns. St. Dominic succeeded the Bishop of Osma as superior of the missions in Languedoc. Together with several companions of his labors, he laid the foundations of his illustrious Order, the Rules of which were approved by Pope Honorius III in 1216.

Sometime after, the Pope created the office of Master of the Sacred Palace, or the Pope’s domestic theologian, and St. Dominic was the first to fill it. The active life of the saint was spent in traveling about for the interests of God and His Church, preaching the Gospel, lecturing on theology and establishing houses of his Order which, even during his lifetime, made great progress and of which Honorius III, in 1220, made him General. His saintly life was happily terminated at Bologna, Italy, August 6, 1221.
