

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

The Blessed Virgin Sorrowing
Invocations from Raccolta

#375

Holy Mother, pierce me through,
In my heart each wound renew,
of my Saviour crucified.

An indulgence of 500 days. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, if this invocation is devoutly repeated every day for a month.

#376

Mary most sorrowful, Mother of Christians, pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days.

#377

Virgin most sorrowful pray for us.

An indulgence of 300 days. An indulgence of 5 years, if, in honor of the BVM Sorrowing, the Hail Mary is devoutly recited 7 times followed by the above invocation once.

POPE SAINT PIUS X
September 3

In a short biographical sketch such as this, it is impossible to mention the names of persons, places, incidents and events that filled the comparatively short reign of this remarkable and saintly Pope. Above all, his holiness shone forth conspicuously. From St. Pius X we learn again that “the folly of the Cross,” simplicity of life, and humility of heart, are still the highest wisdom and the indispensable conditions of a perfect Christian life, while they are the very source of all apostolic fruitfulness.

His last will and testament bears the striking sentence: “I was born poor, I have lived in poverty, and I wish to die poor.”

Perhaps nowhere in the history of the Church is there a better example of a man possessed of so many of the saintly virtues—piety, charity, deep humility, pastoral zeal, and simplicity—than in one of the newest of God's elect, St. Pius X. Yet the parish priest of Tombolo, who remained a country priest at heart throughout his life, faced the problems and evils of a strife-torn world with the spiritual fervor of a crusader. The inscription on his tomb in the crypt of the basilica of St. Peter's gives the most eloquent testimony to a life spent in the service of God:

"Born poor and humble of heart,
Undaunted champion of the Catholic faith,
Zealous to restore all things in Christ,
Crowned a holy life with a holy death."

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

SERVING LIST: The serving list for the next 4 months is now available. There are two separate lists: one for the weekends and one for school Masses. Parents of altar boys should be sure to pick up a copy of each list and make sure your boys are present for their assignments.

CHURCH SEATING: On Sundays, please leave the last three pews on each side of the church for families with small children. We encourage those who do not have small children to move up toward the middle or front of the church, rather than crowding the back of the church.

USHERS’ MEETING: There will be a brief meeting after each Mass this morning for ushers.

SUNDAY DRESS: Let us remember the importance of honoring God on Sunday by the way we dress for Mass. Be sure to dress in your “Sunday Best” when you attend Mass.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST: As we have done in past years, there will be a breakfast after the 9:00 am Mass on the first Sunday of each month, beginning next Sunday. This is a fund-raiser for our school and a good way for you to support the work of Catholic education.

SUNDAY CATECHISM: Sunday catechism classes for children who are not enrolled in our school will begin next Sunday, September 7.

ADULT DOCTRINE CLASSES will be held twice a month, beginning on September 11. More details will be provided next Sunday.

NEW POLICY for the Choir Loft begins today. Children under the age of 12 are not permitted in the choir loft, other than infants in arms. Exceptions can be made by the pastor for unique circumstances.

NOVENA: Our annual novena in preparation for the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary
