

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

INVOCATION TO ST. JOSEPH

Raccolta #458

Grant us, dear Joseph, to run life’s pathway in innocent fashion: May we forever be safe under thy blest patronage. An indulgence of 300 days. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, for the devout recitation of this invocation every day throughout the month.

Raccolta #459

O Saint Joseph, foster-father of our Lord Jesus Christ and true spouse of Mary the Virgin, pray for us. An indulgence of 300 days once a day.

Raccolta #460

The faithful, who in order to obtain the assistance of St. Joseph, the Spouse of the B. V. M., in the various needs of their spiritual and physical life devoutly invoke his holy name, are granted:

An indulgence of 300 days; A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, provided that they devoutly repeat this invocation every day for a month.

SAINT GREGORY THE GREAT
Pope, Confessor & Doctor of the Church

St. Gregory, the son of Gordianus, a wealthy senator, was born at Rome about the year 540, and later renounced the world and became one of the seven deacons of Rome. After he had acquired a thorough education, the Emperor Just the Younger appointed him, in 574, Chef Magistrate of Rome, though he was only thirty-four years of age.

After the death of his father, he built six monasteries in Sicily and founded a seventh in his own house in Rome, which became the Benedictine Monastery of St. Andrew. Here he himself assumed the monastic habit in 575, at the age of thirty-five.

After the death of Pelagius, St. Gregory was chosen Pope by the unanimous consent of priests and people. Now began those labors which have merited for him the title of great. His zeal extended over the entire known world, he was in contact with all the Churches of Christendom and, in spite of his bodily sufferings and innumerable labors, he found time to compose a great number of works. He is known above all for his magnificent contributions to the liturgy of the Mass and Office. He is one of the four great Doctors of the Latin Church. He died March 12, 604.

PRAYER: O God, Thou who hast given to the soul of Thy servant Gregory the Rewards of everlasting bliss, mercifully grant that we who are oppressed by the weight of our sins, may be relieved by his intercession with Thee. Amen.

Lives of the Saints, Pages 104-March 105.
