

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

JESUS IN THE BLESSED SACRAMENT

RACCOLTA #138

Very Bread, good Shepherd, tend us,
 Jesu, of Thy love befriend us,
 Thou refresh us, Thou defend us,
 Thine eternal goodness send us
 In the land of life to see.
 Thou Who all things canst and knowest,
 Who on earth such food bestowest
 Grant us with Thy Saints, though lowest,
 Where the heavenly feast Thou showest,
 Fellow-heirs and guests to be. Amen.

An indulgence of 5 years. An indulgence of 7 years, if this invocation is recited in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament. A plenary indulgence on the usual conditions, when this invocation has been devoutly repeated every day for a month.

SAINT LOUIS DE MONTFORT

From his childhood, he was devoted to prayer before the Blessed Sacrament...his twelfth year he was sent as a day pupil to the Jesuit college at Rennes, & never failed to visit the church before & after class. He joined a society of young men who administered to the poor and incurables in the hospitals...At the age of nineteen, he went on foot to Paris to follow the course in theology, gave away on the journey all his money to the poor, exchanged clothing with them, and made a vow to subsist thenceforth only on alms. He was ordained priest at the age of twenty-seven. In 1705 he found his true vocation, and thereafter devoted himself to preaching to the people. During seventeen years he preached the Gospel in countless towns and villages. As an orator he was highly gifted, his language being simple but replete with fire and divine love. His whole life was conspicuous for virtues difficult for modern degeneracy to comprehend: prayer, love of the poor, poverty, joy in humiliations & persecutions.

A year before his death, Father de Montfort founded two congregations — the Sisters of Wisdom, who were to devote themselves to hospital work and the instruction of poor girls, and the Company of Mary, composed of missionaries. He had long cherished these projects but circumstances had hindered their execution, and, humanly speaking, the work appeared to have failed at his death, since these congregations numbered respectively only four sisters and two priests with a few brothers. But the blessed founder, who had on several occasions shown himself possessed of the gift of prophecy, knew that the tree would grow. At the beginning of the twentieth century the Sisters of Wisdom numbered five thousand, and were spread throughout every country; they possessed forty-four houses, and gave instruction to 60,000 children.
