

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
 - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
 - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
 - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

Little Sayings of the Saints

Pages 89 – 91

“There are two guarantees of a wise rule of conduct: the thought before the action, and self-command afterward.” S. Ignatius Loyola.

“To be dissatisfied and fret about the world when we must of necessity be in it is a great temptation. I am sworn enemy of these useless, dangerous, and bad desires.” S. Francis de Sales.

“Fly from pride, for it will deprive you of the Presence of God.” S. Bridget of Sweden

“Ah! When will human weakness serve God as well as it serves the world!” S. Chrysologus.

“It is very useful, in order to advance in virtue, to have a friend to whom you have given the right to warn you of your faults.” S. Ignatius Loyola.

“Living or dead we are God’s!”

Motto given to the Knights Templar by S. Bernard in A. D. 1128

St. Joseph Calasanctius

This saint was born in Peralta de la Sal in Aragon, Spain, in 1556. He followed the course of philosophy and law at the University of Lerida and studied theology at Valencia and at Alcalá de Henares. In the latter place he received his doctorate. He became a priest in 1582. Such was his reputation for virtue that the Bishop of Lerida chose him as his confessor and appointed him his theologian and synodal examiner.

In 1592 he went to Rome and became theologian to Cardinal Marc-Antonio Colonna. Here he joined the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine. He became so convinced of the necessity of imparting religious instruction to children at an early age that he began this work alone in the Trastevere, where he rented several rooms in which he opened a little school, teaching children reading, writing and arithmetic. After some time several companions joined him in the good work and he began to lead a community life with them. Thus he laid the foundations of a congregation which in course of time grew to be that of the “Clerics Regular of the Poor Schools of the Mother of God.”

During the life of the holy founder his Order spread throughout Italy and afterward to other countries. By a brief of 1622 Pope Gregory XV approved the constitutions and appointed the holy founder General of the Order. The virtuous and austere life of this great servant of God came to an end on August 25, 1648.

Mary Immaculate Queen Parish Announcements

MASS SCHEDULE: We return this week to the normal school-year Mass schedule, with early Masses Monday through Friday at 7:00 am. Also, parents should be sure to take a copy of the serving assignments.

NEW SCHOOL YEAR: Tomorrow is the first day of classes for Saint Joseph Seminary. Classes will begin at Mary Immaculate Queen School on Wednesday.

CHILDREN’S CHOIR sings at the 9:00 am Mass on the fourth Sunday of each month.

SUNDAY CATECHISM classes start in two weeks, on September 6. Parents, please turn in your registration forms no later than Tuesday of this week.

PARENTS: If you bring small children to the Communion rail during the distribution of Holy Communion, please do not allow them to stand on the kneeling pad. They should either kneel or they may stand on the floor by your side. Also, please make sure the priest (especially visiting priest) is aware of which children may not receive Holy Communion.

CHURCH DECORUM: Please be sure to:

1. Turn cell phones off while in the church.
2. Avoid leaving the church during Sunday Mass, outside of grave necessity.
3. Leave the last few pews on each side for the families with small children.
4. If there is an urgent need to leave the church during Mass, please do not use the front right exit.
5. Wait until the priest leaves the sanctuary after Mass before exiting the church.

MASS INTENTIONS: Unfortunately, since we currently have a backlog of Mass intentions, we are
