

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
- Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
- Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
- Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.

We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

SAINT ROSE OF LIMA – August 30

This lovely flower of sanctity, the first canonized Saint of the New World, was born at Lima in 1586. As a child, while still in the cradle, her silence under a painful surgical operation proved the thirst for suffering already consuming her heart. At an early age she took service to support her impoverished parents and worked for them day and night. In spite of hardships and austerities her beauty ripened with increasing age...From fear of vanity she cut off her hair, blistered her face with pepper and her hands with lime. For further security she enrolled herself in the Third Order of St. Dominic, took St. Catherine of Siena as her model, and redoubled her penance.

The Blessed Sacrament seemed almost her only food. Her love for it was intense. When the Dutch fleet prepared to attack the town, Rose took her place before the tabernacle and wept that she was not worthy to die in its defense. All her sufferings were offered for the conversion of sinners, and the thought of the multitudes in hell was ever before her soul. She died in 1617, at the age of thirty-one. Little Sayings of the Saints

Pages 91 – 94 – From Aug. 30 – Sept. 5

“Let us follow Thee, O Lord, by Thee, to Thee; for Thou art the Way, the Truth, and the Life: the Way by example, the Truth by promise, and the Life by reward.” S. Bernard

“No, my Lord, it is not through fault of Thine that they who love Thee do not do great things for Thee; the fault is in our own cowardice and fears, because we never do any thing without mingling with it a thousand apprehensions and human considerations.” S. Teresa.

“All without is mean and small,
All within is vast and tall;
All without is harsh and shrill,
All within is hushed and still.”
S. Elizabeth of Hungary.

“From day to day Sing loud thy lay
To Mary’s Name, O soul of mine!
And freely praise Her festal days
And actions of her life divine!” S. Anselm.

“Suppose the Godhead to be a vast globe of light: a globe larger than the whole world: and that all our actions are seen in that all-embracing Globe.” St. Teresa.

“I have made a compact with my tongue never to speak, and with myself never to act, so long as my heart is troubled.” S. Bernard.

“He is pleasing to God who strives to please God.” S. Bernard.
