

WELCOME NEWCOMERS! If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services: • Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted. • Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie. • Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services. • Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father. We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.
CLOSING HYMN “My God, Accept My Heart,” #89, Page 76  MIQ PARISH CALENDAR Sept. 7 Labor Day 12 Men’s group 13 Rosary procession 19 Vigil for vocations, Confraternity of MIQ Meeting 29 Ordinations at MSM Oct. 7-11 Fatima Conference  NATIVITY OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY More than nineteen hundred years ago thee dwelt in the little Galilean village of Nazareth a holy couple of the royal race of David, whose names were Joachim and Anne. They were already far advanced in years and had almost ceased to hope that God would bless their union with a child, when the long desire of their hearts was gratified by the birth of a daughter, who would be forever blessed among women and make the names of Joachim and Anne known and honored through all future ages. This child was called Mary, the chosen one of Adam’s race, destined to be the Mother of Jesus Christ, Who became her child, to redeem and save the world. September 8th has been observed as the date of her birth since the 5th century in the calendar of the Church. On the feast of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin, the Church unites in spirit with the Patriarchs and Prophets of the Old law, with all who during long centuries of expectation watched and prayed for the coming of the Just One. Whose advent and work of redemption had their beginning in the birth of His Immaculate Mother. Lives of the Saints, Pages 354-355	Little Sayings of the Saints Pages 95 – 97, from Sept. 6 – Sept. 12 “Teach us, Good Lord: To serve Thee as thou deservest; To give, and not to count the cost; To fight, and not to heed the wounds; To toil, and to seek for no repose; To labor, and to seek for no reward; Save that of knowing that we do Thy Will!” S. Ignatius Loyola. “The first rule of the house is: To bore nobody.” Blessed Mother Barat. “I cannot understand why those who have given themselves up to God and His Goodness are not always cheerful; for what possible happiness can equal that? No accidents of imperfections which may happen ought to have power to trouble them, or to hinder their looking upward.” S. Francis de Sales. “Rember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that any one who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, and sought thy intercession, was left unaided.” S. Bernard. “Go forward joyously and with a light heart as far as you can; and if you cannot always go joyously, at least go courageously and confidently.” S. Francis de Sales. “Be near me, Lord, when dying; Show Thou Thyself to me; And for my succor flying, Come Lord, to set me free!” S. Ignatius Loyola. “Give me but Thy Grace and the love of Thee, and I am rich enough and ask for nothing more.” S. Ignatius Loyola.
