

WELCOME NEWCOMERS!

If this is the first time you have attended the Traditional Latin Mass, you may have noticed that our parishioners do not dress casually in the church. Since the changes in the Church, few parishes have any kind of dress code. Here, however, we still believe that modesty and appropriate attire are necessary, especially in Church out of reverence for the Blessed Sacrament. Please observe these minimum standards of dress for attendance at Church services:

- Women and girls must cover their heads. Chapel veils or mantillas are available for loan in the vestibule. They should also wear dresses or skirts that cover the knee completely when standing or sitting; slacks, shorts, sleeveless, tight, or low-cut clothing are not permitted.
 - Men and boys should wear a suit coat and tie.
 - Jeans and other casual attire are inappropriate for attendance at Church services.
 - Also, unless you have been attending the Latin Mass exclusively, you should refrain from receiving Holy Communion until you have had an opportunity to meet with Father.
- We are always happy to see new faces at Mary Immaculate Queen Church, and we look forward to seeing you again.

Little Sayings of the Saints
Pages 110 – 112

We should thank God for everything here below, that we may be able to thank Him eternally above. They who praise not God here below, will be mute eternally. To praise God is the most joyous and delicious employment of the loving heart.
Blessed John Ruysbroeck.

Every Creature is a ladder to raise us to God.
S. John Climachus.

Oh! Spare and pardon me, my Lord, For Thy sweet Mercy’s sake! S. Alphonsus.

O Sacrament most Holy! O Sacrament Divine! All praise and all thanksgiving Be every moment Thine! Blessed Juan of Avila.

The sufficiency of my merit is to know that my merit is not sufficient. St. Augustine.

Love spurs us on to do great things; and makes all that is bitter sweet and savoury.
S. Augustine.

SAINT LUKE, EVANGELIST
PATRON OF PAINTERS

St. Luke was born at Antioch, Syria, according to the Church historian Eusebius. He was a Gentile by birth and a physician by profession. According to a legend of the 6th century he was also a painter.

He was one of the earliest converts to the Faith and later became the missionary companion of St. Paul, whom he accompanied on part of his second and third missionary journeys, and attended during his Cæsarean and Roman captivities. Little is known with certainty of his subsequent life.

The unanimous tradition of the Church ascribes the third Gospel to St. Luke. Allusions to and citations from the Gospel are most frequent in early Christian writings, and even heretics made diligent use of this inspired book. The Gospel itself shows that its author was a person of literary powers, a physician and companion of St. Paul. This Gospel was written before the destruction of Jerusalem, 70 A.D., for it does not refer to the fulfillment of Christ’s prophecy. Since the Acts of the Apostles closes its narrative with the year 63 or 64 A.D., the Gospel of St. Luke, his first book, must have been written prior to 63 A.D.

Little is known with certainty about the place of composition. Some of the ancient authors suggest Achaia (Greece); some of the manuscripts mention Alexandria or Macedonia; while modern writers also defend Cæsarean, Ephesus or Rome. As an artist, St. Luke shows his skill in portraying, living characters, and he has remained an inspiration to painters for centuries. As a historian, he is comparable with the great Greek and Latin writers. In his Gospel there is a steady movement of events from Nazareth to Jerusalem, whereas in the Acts it is from Jerusalem to Rome. Lives of the Saints, pages409-410
